Set yourself a challenge.

Maths

This half term we are working on fractions, our learning objectives are listed below:

Can I solve problems involving multiplication and division, including scaling by simple fractions and problems involving simple rates
Can I compare and order fractions whose denominators are all multiples of the same number
Can I identify name and write equivalent fractions of a given fraction, represented visually incl. tenths/hundredths
Can I recognise mixed numbers and improper fractions and convert from one form to the other and write mathematical statements $> 1$ as a mixed number
Can I add and subtract fractions with the same denominator and denominators that are multiples of the same n.
Can I multiply proper fractions and mixed numbers by whole numbers, supported by materials and diagrams
Can I read and write decimal numbers as fractions eg, $0.71 =$ seventy one hundredths

Your homework is to extend your learning in class into your home learning.

Each week Miss Wharton will give you some ideas about what you could do for homework, linked to our learning in class. Your task is to explain this learning to your adult. This is a really good way of seeing what you have remembered and what you understand. Remember to ask Miss Wharton if you need some extra ideas.

Reading

Can you practise reading every day?

Can you answer these questions with an adult about the book you are reading?

Before reading the book:

What might happen in this story?

What genre will this story be? E.g. fantasy, horror or comedy.

During the book:

What has happened so far?

What might happen next?

How do you think the story might end?

Who is your favourite character? Why?

Find two sentences that describe the setting.

Is the plot fast or slow moving? Find some evidence in the text, which supports your view.

At the end of the book:

Would you change any part of the story? How?

Would you change any of the characters? How?

Which part of the story was the funniest, saddest, scariest, saddest and happiest?

Find some evidence in the text to support your opinion.

If you met one of the characters from the story, what would you say to him/her

Half Termly Homework.

For this half term I would like you to write and illustrate a Christmas story.

Your story could be based on the Nativity or could be a different Christmas story based on Father Christmas, Snowmen or something else.

I have provided you all with a blank book to write and illustrate your story in.

I will be looking at your English skills in this story, including all the elements we work on in class.

Especially; spelling, sentence formation and basic punctuation (full stops and capital letters), your use of other punctuation, your use of expanded noun phrases and your use of adjectives.

We will share these stories together in the run up to Christmas.

The task is due in on Monday 14th December.
