Your task is to learn them over this half term, until the half term holiday. Make your best efforts to learn them all.

Remember to keep revising the previous words you have learnt this year. You could add these spellings to sentences to help you learn the meanings.

Maths

This half term we are working on volume. Have a go at these problems.

Calculate the volume of the following cuboids using the formula length \times width \times height.

1.		2.		3.		4.
volume =	<input type="text"/>	cm ³	volume =	<input type="text"/>	cm ³	volume =	<input type="text"/>	cm ³	volume =	<input type="text"/>	cm ³
5.		6.		7.		8.
volume =	<input type="text"/>	cm ³	volume =	<input type="text"/>	cm ³	volume =	<input type="text"/>	cm ³	volume =	<input type="text"/>	cm ³

Each week Miss Wharton will tell you an activity you can practise at home to embed your number skills. Remember practice is the key to embedding our learning.

Keep revising all your times tables and related division facts up to 12.

Reading

Please complete pages 29, 33 and 33 in your reading journal.

Can you practise reading every day?

Can you answer these questions with an adult about the book you are reading?

Which elements of this text are persuasive?

Why does this section begin with a question?

What do you think the writer thinks about this topic and why?

Why were...included?

Can you think of another story that is similar to this one?

Does the author like...? How do you know?

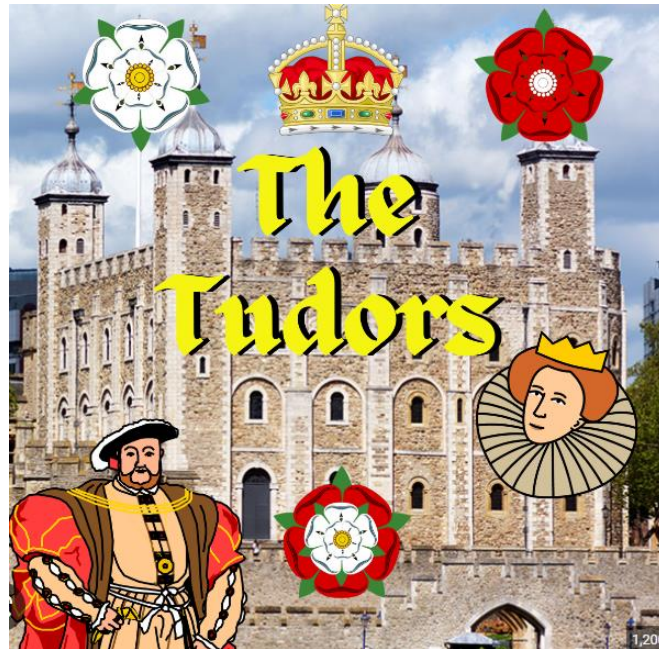

What kind of magazine would you expect to find an article like this?

How were the purposes of the texts different?

Half termly homework

This term we are learning about The Tudors.

Your task is to carry out some of your own research to make a poster about an aspect of Tudor life. It could be clothes, food the monarchy or anything else.

The homework is due in on Monday 22nd May

I look forward to seeing your work.
