

Reading at Home

Reading Books from school

We can provide reading books for your child if required.

These can be collected and exchanged once a week, from school.

Returned books will be quarantined until they can be put back into circulation.

Please keep up with recording your child's reading in their school reading journal/ diary- especially what they have read.

Recommended sites for further access

We recommend Oxford Owl <https://home.oxfordowl.co.uk/> It has an e library for different age groups as well as phonics activities. We use this scheme in school.

There is a good selection of e books for all age groups. You can access these through the class log- in.

This has been sent to you by email form the school office.

The Book Trust has a good range and support activities
