Your task is to learn them over this half term, until the Christmas holiday. Aim to learn as many as possible.

Set yourself a challenge. Remember to keep revising our spelling from last term (they are on the school website).

Maths

This half term we are working on fractions, to help at home you could ask your child to calculate fractions of numbers.

For example half of 350= 175, a quarter of 200= 50, or three quarters of 600= 450, you could then make the questions more challenging, for example:  $\frac{2}{5}$  of 100,  $\frac{3}{8}$  of 1600

$\frac{7}{10}$  of 50.

Remember to keep revising all your times tables and related division facts up to 12, using Timestable Rock Stars to help.

Reading

Please complete pages 5, 9 and 13 in your reading journal (if you haven't already).

Can you practise reading every day?

Can you answer these questions with an adult about the book you are reading?

Before reading the book:

What might happen in this story?

What genre will this story be? E.g. fantasy, horror or comedy.

During the book:

What has happened so far?

What might happen next?

How do you think the story might end?

Who is your favourite character? Why?

Find two sentences that describe the setting.

Is the plot fast or slow moving? Find some evidence in the text, which supports your view.

At the end of the book:

Would you change any part of the story? How?

Would you change any of the characters? How?

Which part of the story was the funniest, saddest, scariest, saddest and happiest?

Half Termly Homework.

For this half term I would like you to write and illustrate a Christmas story.

Your story could be based on the Nativity or could be a different Christmas story based on Father Christmas, Snowmen or something else.

I have provided you all with a blank book to write and illustrate your story in.

I will be looking at your English skills in this story, including all the elements we work on in class.

Especially; spelling, sentence formation and basic punctuation (full stops and capital letters), your use of other punctuation, your use of expanded noun phrases and your use of adjectives.

We will share these stories together in the run up to Christmas.

The task is due in on Monday 12th December.
